

Translated by Greg Gorsuch
Part 2

HISTORICAL SUMMARY
OF THE WAR
OF THE PENINSULA,
FROM 1807 TO 1814,
SERVING AS AN INTRODUCTION TO THE JOURNALS OF THE SIEGES MADE OR SUSTAINED BY THE FRENCH IN THIS WAR.

ANALYTICAL TABLE

OF CONTENTS

CAMPAIGNS OF 1807 AND 1808

I.

	Pages.
STATE of Spain. --Secret Treaty of Fontainebleau.....	1.
Entry of French troops into Spain and Portugal.
Occupation of the towns of Figueres, Barcelona, Pamplona and San Sebastian.....	4.
Events at Aranjuez. --Napoleon gives up at Bayonne.
Arrival in this city of Ferdinand VII, Charles IV and the royal family.....	9.
Abdication of Charles IV in favor of Napoleon. --Joseph Bonaparte is declared King of Spain. --Revolt of May in Madrid.....	11.
General insurrection of the Spaniards.....	13.
Operations of Marshal Bessières. --First siege of Saragossa.....	15.
Dupont advances into Andalusia. --Capitulation of Baylen.....	16.
Unsuccessful attempt by Marshal Moncey on Valencia.....	19.
Operation of General Duhesme in Catalonia. --Attempts against Girona.....	20.
Cuesta and Blake march on Valladolid. --Battle of Riosco.....	23.
King Joseph enters Madrid. --He evacuates this capital. --Retreat of the French army on the Ebro.....	24.
The English land in Portugal. --Battle of Roliça. --Battle of Vimeiro. --Convention of Sintra. --The French evacuate Portugal.....	25.

II.

Napoleon leads new troops on the Pyrenees and goes to Bayonne.....	27.
The English army of Sir John Moore leaves Portugal and enters Spain. --The Spanish armies assemble on the Ebro.....	29.
The French army resumes the offensive.....	32.
Battle of Zornoza. --Battle of Guenès.....	33.
Napoleon takes command of the French troops. --Battle of Burgos. --Battle of Espinosa.....	34.
Battle of Tudela. --Second siege of Saragossa.....	39.
Napoleon forces the passage of the Somosierra and advances on Madrid. --This city capitulates.....	42.
Operation of the Seventh Corps in Catalonia. --Siege of Roses. --Battle of Cardedeu. --Battle of Molino del Rey.....	45.

III.

The English army of Sir John Moore concentrates at Salamanca. --It advances into the Carrion valley to envelop the Second Corps.....	47.
Napoleon leaves Madrid at the head of fifty thousand men and marches on Benavente. --Hasty retreat of the English on Astorga.....	50.
Napoleon returns to Valladolid and leaves for Paris. --Marshal Soult continues the pursuit of the English army. --Disastrous retreat of this army.....	52.

	Pages.
Battle of Corunna. --The English re-embark.....	54.
The Spanish armies of Estremadura and the La Mancha are defeated on the Tagus.....	55.

CAMPAIGN OF 1809

I

Dispositions taken for the opening of the campaign.....	57.
Marshal Soult leaves Galicia and enters Portugal through the province of Trás-os-Montes.....	60.
Defeat of the Marquis La Romana at Monterrey. --Chaves opens its gates. --General Silveira throws himself on the rear of the French army.....	62.
Marshal Soult crosses the Sierra-Cabrera. --Battle of Braga.....	63.
Battle and assault of Oporto. --Marshal Soult stops on the Douro.....	64.
Marshal Victor advances through the Tagus valley to support the march of Marshal Soult and threaten Andalusia. --He forces the passage of the Tagus at the bridge of Almaraz.....	66.
The Spanish army of Estremadura withdraws on the Guadiana. --Battle of Medellín. --Marshal Victor stops at Mérida.....	67.
General Sebastiani marches against the Spanish army of La Mancha. --Battle of Ciudad Real.....	68.
General Lapisse leaves Salamanca with ten thousand men, and marches on Águeda to support the march of Marshal Soult. --He heads for Alcántara and then retreats to Mérida.....	69.
Sir Arthur Wellesley lands at Lisbon with reinforcements. --He surprises the passage of the Douro in front of Oporto. --Critical position of the French army.....	70.
Marshal Soult retreats through the mountains, and returns to Galicia, heading for Lugo.....	73.
Marshal Victor advances to create a diversion in support of Marshal Soult. --His vanguard retakes Alcántara and pushes reconnaissance as far as Castelo Branco.....	75.
Arrival of Sir Arthur Wellesley at Abrantès. --Marshal Victor blows up the bridge of Alcántara. --He remains for some time under observation at Torre Mocha, and then withdraws behind the Tagus.....	76.
Operations of Marshal Ney in Galicia against the Marquis de la Romana. --Marshal Mortier arrives at Valladolid with the Fifth Corps. --Expedition to the Asturias.....	77.
Marshal Soult pursues the Marquis de la Romana in vain in the mountains of Galicia. --He returns to the kingdom of Leon and takes cantonments on the Esla.....	80.
Marshal Ney evacuates Galicia and withdraws to Astorga. --The French troops leave the Asturias.....	81.
Operations in Aragon. --General Suchet takes command of the Third Corps.....	83.
Blake forms an army in Valencia and advances into Aragon. --He is defeated by General Suchet at Maria and Belechite.....	85.
Operations in Catalonia. --Battle of Valls. --General Gouvion Saint-Cyr blocks Tarragona.....	86.
The Seventh Corps withdraws to Vic. --Siege of Girona.....	89.
Blake reforms his army in Tarragona and manages to introduce a convoy to Girona.....	Id.

II

The English army advances through the Tagus valley to retake Madrid jointly with the Spanish armies of Estremadura and the La Mancha	90.
King Joseph reinforces Marshal Victor on the Alberche. --Battle of Talavera	91.
King Joseph marches to Toledo against the Spanish Army La Mancha.....	93.
Arrival of Marshal Soult in the rear of the enemy with the Second, Fifth and Sixth Corps. --Retreat of the English to Badajoz.....	94.
Battle of Almonacid against the Spanish Army of La Mancha. --King Joseph returns to Madrid.
Inaction of the French troops on the Tagus.....	95.
Expeditions against the bands that intercepted communications.....	97.
The Duke of Parque marches on Salamanca at the head of thirty thousand men. --The Sixth Corps experiences a setback at Tamames and retreats to Toro.....	98.

	Pages.
A new Spanish army, formed in Andalusia, advances on the Tagus to retake Madrid without the help of the English. --Battle of Ocaña.....	99.
General Kellermann leaves Valladolid, reinforces the Sixth Corps, and operates against the Duke of Parque. --Battle of Alba de Tormes.....	101.
The English army returns to Portugal and takes up position on the Côa behind Almeida.....	102.

CAMPAIGN OF 1810

I

Napoleon directs new reinforcements to Spain. --The French armies resume the offensive at all points....	104.
King Joseph conquers Andalusia at the head of fifty thousand men. --Marshal Soult remains in charge of guarding this province.....	105.
Marshal Victor blockades Cadiz with the First Corps. --General Sebastiani covers the border of Granada with the Fourth Corps.....	109.
The Marquis de la Romana gathers the troops of the Duke of Parque at Campo-Mayor. --Marshal Mortier goes under the walls of Badajoz with the Fifth Corps. --He is forced to return to Andalusia.....	110.
General Reynier occupies, with the Second Corps, the country between the Guadiana and the Tagus.....	112.
An Anglo-Portuguese corps, under the orders of General Hill, comes to take up position at Portalegre, and supports the Spanish army of the Marquis de la Romana.....	Id.
Marshal Ney presents himself under the walls of Ciudad-Rodrigo. He returns to Salamanca, and prepares means of siege. --He fortifies the line of the Tormes.....	113.
General Bonet leaves Santander, and enters the Asturias.....	114.
Arrival of the Eighth Corps at Valladolid. --Siege of Astorga.....	115.
Operations of General Suchet in Aragon. --Unsuccessful attempt on Valencia. --Sieges of Lerida and Mequinenza.....	116.
Operations of Marshal Augereau in Catalonia. --Blockade of Hostalrich. --Supply of Barcelona.....	117.
Enrique O'Donnell tries to take the Souham Division from Vic. --He is pushed back	119.
Marshal Augereau approaches the Ebro to cover the sieges that General Suchet was to undertake in Lower Catalonia. --He retreats hastily to Girona.....	119.
The Spanish garrison of Hostalrich forces the blockade line, and partly escapes.....	120.
Capture of the fort of Medes, at the mouth of the Fluvià.....	121.

II

Massena prepares to enter Portugal. --Defense system adopted by Wellington.....	122.
Sieges of Ciudad-Rodrigo and Almeida.....	125.
Lord Wellington retreats behind the Alva.....	127.
Massena heads for Coimbra by the right bank of the Mondego. --Battle of Bussaco.....	129.
Lord Wellington retreats to the lines of Torres-Vedras. --Description of these lines.....	132.
Massena falls back to Santarem, behind the Rio-Mayor. --General Foy goes to Paris to ask the Emperor for orders.....	135.
Defense works at Santarém and on the Zêzere. --Construction of boats at the mouth of this river to throw a bridge over the Tagus.....	136.
Unsuccessful march of a column commanded by General Gardanne, to join the army by Castel Branco and Abrantès.....	137.
General Drouet joins the army at Leiria, with the Second Division of the Ninth Corps and the column of General Gardanne.....	Id.
Works of the blockade of Cadiz.....	138.
Efforts of Marshal Soult to maintain himself in Andalusia.....	142.
Unsuccessful attempts of the Marquis de la Romana in Extremadura. --He joins Lord Wellington's army.....	144.

	Pages.
Operations of General Sebastiani on the frontiers of Granada and on the coast of Malaga. --Siege of Marbella.....	145.
Activity of the guerrilla bands in the interior of Spain.....	148.
General Suchet advances against Tortosa, and blocks the bridgehead of this place. --Delays experienced by the preparations for the siege. --Attacks of the Spanish armies of Catalonia and Valencia.....	149.
Marshal Macdonald advances to Lerida, with the Seventh Corps, to cover the siege of Tortosa.....	150.
Enrique O'Donnell marches on Girona, and captures the brigade of General Schwartz, camped at La Bisbal.....	151.
Retreat of Marshal Macdonald to Girona. --He leaves this place to bring a convoy into Barcelona and heads for the Ebro. --Siege of Tortosa.....	152.

CAMPAIGN OF 1811

I

Critical situation of Masséna in Portugal.....	153.
Marshal Soult receives the order to advance into the Alentejo. --Marshal Bessières forms the army of the north at Valladolid.....	154.
Marshal Soult leaves Seville, and heads for Badajoz at the head of twenty thousand men. --Obstacles which delay his march.....	155.
The Spaniards abandon the line of the Guadiana. --Siege of Olivenza.....	159.
Siege of Badajoz. --Lord Wellington sends the Spanish troops of the Marquis de la Romana to the aid of this place. --Battle of Gebora.....	161.
General La Houssaye advances through the valley of the Tagus with a column of the army of the center. False movements of this column.....	162.
Masséna begins his retreat on Coimbra. --Difficulties of this enterprise.....	164.
Battle of Pombal. --The army of Portugal retreats behind the Soure and arrives at Condeixa. --Marshal Ney, commander of the rearguard, stops the enemy at Redinha.....	166.
General Montrun presents himself before Coimbra. --The Portuguese militia cut the bridge of this city, and defend the fords of the Mondego.....	167.
Masséna changes his line of retreat and takes the bad road of Miranda de Corvo to take up position behind the Deuca. --He is obliged to continue his retreat. --Marshal Ney stops the enemy on the Ceira. The army arrives at Celorico.....	168.
Massena takes up position at Guarda. --Marshal Ney loses his command.....	169.
The army of Portugal retreats behind the Côa. --Battle of Sabugal.....	170.
Masséna retreats to Ciudad-Rodrigo, and comes to take up quarters in Salamanca.....	171.
The Anglo-Portuguese army establishes itself behind the Côa. --Blockade of Almeida.....	172.
The French army of the south continues its operations in Estremadura. --Marshal Soult returns to Andalusia with part of his troops.....	Id.
Attempt by the English united with the Spanish to unblock Cadiz. --Battle of Chiclana.....	Id.
Marshal Mortier remains in Estremadura with the Fifth Corps. --Siege of Campo-Mayor. --The forts of Valencia and Albuquerque capitulate.....	175.
Marshal Beresford arrives in Alentejo with fifteen thousand men, and takes the offensive. --The Fifth Corps retreats to the entrance of the Sierra-Morena passes.....	Id.
Marshal Beresford seizes Olivenza and blockades Badajoz. --Arrival of Lord Wellington under the walls of this place.....	Id.
Masséna reunites his army at Ciudad-Rodrigo to resupply Almeida. --He receives some reinforcements from Marshal Bessières.....	176.
Lord Wellington returns in all haste to put himself at the head of his troops, and takes position in front of Almeida. --Battle of Fuentes de Oñoro.....	177.
Private Tillet crosses the English line, and brings to General Brenier, governor of Almeida, the order to evacuate this place.....	179.

	Pages.
Fine retreat of General Brenier. --Marshal Marmont replaces Marshal Masséna in the command of the army of Portugal.....	180.
Marshal Beresford opens the trench in front of Badajoz. --Marshal Soult advances to relieve this place.
Battle of Albuera. --The French army withdraws to Llerena.....	181.
Continuation of the blockade of Cadiz.....	184.
General Sebastiani covers the borders of Granada and Jaen, and prepares for the siege of Cartagena.....	185.
The Army of the North supports the right of the Army of Portugal towards Benavente and Leon.
General Bonet remains in the Asturias.....	Id.
Operations in Catalonia. --Capture of Fort Saint-Philippe at the Balaguer Pass.....	186
General Suchet receives the order to besiege Tarragona. --Marshal Macdonald leaves Lerida to go to Barcelona. --Burning of Manresa.....	187
Unsuccessful attempt by the Spanish to seize Fort Montjuïc in Barcelona. --Surprise of the fort of Figueras by the Catalan bands.....	188

II

Napoleon orders various defensive works, and sends reinforcements to Spain.....	190.
Lord Wellington leaves Almeida with two divisions, and joins Marshal Beresford in front of Badajoz.
Second defense of this place.....	191.
Marshal Marmont goes to the left bank of the Tagus, and joins Marshal Soult to relieve Badajoz.
Lord Wellington retreats behind the Caia under the support of the places of Elvas and Campo-Mayor..	192.
Blake throws himself into Andalusia, besieges Niebla and threatens Seville. --Marshal Soult goes to the aid of this capital.....	194.
Olivenza is dismantled. --The Fifth Corps remains in Estremadura. --The Army of Portugal takes cantonments on the right bank of the Tagus.....	195.
The Spanish Army of Galicia tries to emerge into the plains of Castile. --It is driven back by the Army of the North. --Lord Wellington recrosses the Tagus and invests Ciudad-Rodrigo.....	196.
The armies of Portugal and the North join up at Tamames, and lift the blockade of Ciudad-Rodrigo. They return to their cantonments.....	197.
Excursion of the Spaniards in Estremadura. --General Girard lets himself be surprised with a brigade of the Fifth Corps, at Arroyomolinos, by the English corps of General Hill.....	199.
Blake, leaving Cadiz with an expeditionary force, goes to Murcia, and takes up position in an entrenched camp at Venta del Baul. --Marshal Soult arrives at Granada with reinforcements, and forces Blake to withdraw.....	200.
Ballesteros operates in the mountains of Ronda. --General Godinot pursues him and forces him to withdraw under the cannon of Gibraltar.....	201.
A Spanish corps lands at Tarifa. --General Godinot advances to meet it and suffers losses.....	Id.
New expedition against Tarifa. --Siege of this place.....	202.
General Bonet returns to Asturias. --A division of the Army of the North supplies Ciudad-Rodrigo.....	203.
The Army of Portugal extends its right into Asturias. --The Army of the North is placed in the second line to cover the rear.....	Id.
Marshal Suchet marches on Tarragona. --Siege of this place. --Capture of Montserrat.....	205.
Surrender of Figueras.....	206.
Blake organizes the defense of the kingdom of Valencia. --Marshal Suchet advances into this province..	207.
Siege and battle of Sagunto.....	210.
Marshal Suchet receives reinforcements. --He invests Valencia. --Siege of this place.....	211.
Unsuccessful attempt by General Montbrun on Alicante.....	212.
Excursion of the Catalan bands on the borders of France.....	213.

CAMPAIGN OF 1812

I

	Pages.
Lord Wellington takes the offensive and besieges Ciudad-Rodrigo. --Defense of this place.....	215.
Lord Wellington goes with the mass of his troops into the Alentejo, and besieges Badajoz. --Defense of this place.....	218.
Marshal Marmont invades Portugal by the upper Beira. --Lord Wellington marches against him and forces him to fall back on Salamanca.....	220.
The English corps of General Hill seizes the Almaraz bridge on the Tagus, and cuts off the communication of Marshals Soult and Marmont.....	221.
Efforts of the bands in Biscay and Navarre. --General famine in Spain.....	223.
Operations of Marshal Suchet in the kingdom of Valencia. --Siege and capture of Peniscola.....	Id.
The Spaniards try in vain to retake Tarragona. --Battle of Altafulla.....	224.
Catalonia is reunited with France. --Works undertaken in this province.....	225.

II

Napoleon withdraws troops from Spain.....	226.
Lord Wellington receives reinforcements and takes the offensive. --Capture of the fort of Salamanca.....	228.
Marshal Marmont withdraws to the Douro; he is joined there by the troops of General Bonet, and goes to meet the Anglo-Portuguese army.....	230.
Battle of the Arapiles or Salamanca.....	232.
Rout of the French army. --General Clauzel takes command in chief and withdraws to Burgos.....	234.
King Joseph goes to the aid of the Army of Portugal with the Army of the Center. --He returns to Madrid, which he evacuates to withdraw to the kingdom of Valencia.....	235.
Lord Wellington makes his entry into Madrid. --He seizes the Retiro.....	235.
Marshal Soult evacuates Andalusia and retreats to Valencia.....	236.
General Clauzel resumes the offensive and reoccupies Valladolid.....	237.
Lord Wellington leaves Madrid and forces General Clauzel to retreat again. --Defense of the castle of Burgos.....	238.
The French armies of Portugal, the South and the Center, resume the offensive. --Lifting of the siege of Burgos. --The Anglo-Portuguese army retreats to Salamanca.....	239.
Capture of the fort of Chinchilla. --King Joseph returns to Madrid.....	240.
Concentration of the French armies on the Tormes. --Retreat of Lord Wellington to Portugal.....	241.
The English Army of Sicily lands at Alicante. --The Spanish Army of Murcia takes the offensive on the borders of Valencia. --It is pushed back.....	243.
Operations of General Decaen in Catalonia. --Capture of Montserrat.....	245.
The English land on the coast of Biscay, and support Mendizabál's bands. --They seize Castro-Urdiales and Bilbao. --General Caffarelli retakes the latter city.....	246.
Mina intercepts communications in Navarre and Aragon. --General Reille sets out in pursuit.....	247.

CAMPAIGN OF 1813

I

Napoleon withdraws troops from Spain. --The armies of Portugal, the South and the Center, are placed in the front line to observe the Anglo-Portuguese army.....	248.
General Clauzel takes command of the Army of the North, which occupies the provinces of Biscay, Navarre and Aragon.....	250.

	Pages.
King Joseph quits Madrid and establishes his headquarters in Valladolid. --He detaches four divisions from the Army of Portugal for reinforcing the Army of the North.....	251.
General Foy goes to Biscay. --Siege of Castro-Urdiales.....	252.
Lord Wellington takes the offensive and turns the line of the Douro. --King Joseph withdraws to the Ebro. --He is cut off from Bilbao.....	Id.
Battle of Vitoria.....	254.
The French army withdraws to the Pyrenees. --The English blockade Santoña, Pamplona and San Sebastian.....	258.
The English united with the Spanish make several attacks in Catalonia and in the kingdom of Valencia. Capture of the fort of Requena. --Marshal Suchet withdraws to Barcelona. --Mina occupies Saragossa	259.

II

Marshal Soult takes command of the army of the Pyrenees. --He tries to rescue Pamplona and San Sebastian. --Battle of Oricáin.....	261.
New attempt to force the English lines on the Bidasoa. --Fine defense of San Sebastian.....	265.
Lord Wellington crosses the Bidasoa and seizes the posts of the Croix des Bouquets and the Baïonette. Surrender of Pamplona.....	266.
The Anglo-Portuguese army forces the line of the Nivelle.....	268.
Marshal Soult withdraws to Bayonne and takes position on the Nive and the Adour. --Battles of Arcangues and Saint-Pierre d'Irube.....	269.
Operations in Catalonia. --The English besiege Tarragona. --Marshal Suchet unblocks this place and blows up its fortifications.....	270.
Affair on the Llobregat. --Battle at the Col d'Ordal. --Marshal Suchet retreats to Barcelona.....	272.

CAMPAIGN OF 1814

I

The Duke of Angoulême lands at Saint-Jean de Luz. --Lord Wellington takes the offensive and moves to the Bidouze.....	275.
The French army retreats. --Blockade of Bayonne. -- Battle of Orthez.....	Id.
Marshal Soult retreats via Tarbes to Toulouse.....	277.
Lord Wellington crosses the Garonne. --Battle of Toulouse. --Retreat of the French army to Castelnaudary.....	281.
Events in Catalonia. --Negotiations for the return of Ferdinand VII.....	285.
Attack on the Molino del Rey bridge. --Marshal Suchet retreats to Girona.....	287.
The Spanish seize Lerida and Mequinenza. --Beautiful defense of the castle of Monzón. --Marshal Suchet retreats under Figueres.....	288.
Ferdinand VII arrives in Perpignan and returns to Spain.....	289.
Marshal Suchet retreats to Narbonne. --Abdication of Napoleon. --Submission of the French armies to the provisional government.....	290.

END OF TABLE